

The declaration of The La-unwitthayakarn School

Topic : The honest intention in administrating The La-unwitthayakarn School

The La-unwitthayakarn School considers an important role of administrating affairs with moral and transparency according to the governmental policies (Mr.Prayut Chan-O-Cha) on 12th November 1994, supporting equality and justice by promoting the prevention of corruption and improper behaviors in the governmental sections. According to the Ethics Act of governmental officials in 2009 the tasks laid out in the manual of the Office of the Basic Education Commission declared that the ethics of governmental officials recorded on 22nd June 2011, emphasizing the transparency and assessable policies and integrity of all documents : ITA of Office of the National Anti-Corruption Commission and Public sector fraud Prevention and Protection Committee Office.

The La-unwitthayakarn School has studied and made a manual plan for the prevention and elimination of fraud by following its' own policies. This manual plan covers the following : transparency in accountability, fraud-free security in operations, the morals and culture in the organization, the moral aspects of work in the organization and the moral aspects of work in the departments. It is expected that the governmental officials and all their staff's behavior will show a good response to what society expects of them and that they will be trusted by the people. It is expected that all governmental officials will behave in an honorable fashion and also that they will perform their duties according to their responsibilities to improve their working environment.

I urge all personnel to perform their duties with dedicatory, honesty and integrity by refraining from computing and adhering to the following principles;

1. Transparency : We are required to reveal information regarding the implementation of official tasks and procurement, provide opportunities for the general public stakeholders to participate in NPESAO5's inspection, and establish a precise administration and management system in dealing with complaints,

2. Accountability : We intend to carry out our tasks efficiently, abide by laws and Regulations, follow our processes lawfully, and uphold responsibility and accountability when making decisions, while operating relevant administration and management systems, to gain credibility from the general public.

3. Corruption-free : We intend to carry to our tasks honestly and refrain from using Our positions for personal benefits such as bribery or special perks.

4. Organizational culture and integrity : We will not tolerate and forms of corruption and will put an end to any corruption found in our organization.

5. Organizational work Ethics : We will set up concise performance standards and systems relating to management personnel, budget and job assignments to ensure equitability and accountability.
